

Never a dull moment

more adventures from Camp Walker

Eldot's coming of age novel roars into the second week at Camp Walker. Another three days of the two week camp are packed with comedy, adventure and surprise developments.

Mark's story begins to unfold, and Julian learns about Erik. Julian and Mark's relationship develops an aesthetic dimension.

Julian feels empowered and undertakes a unique challenge: outfitting Nick and Tom's clandestine bedroom. He becomes their self-appointed secret guardian.

The exotic Geoff branches out in his personal quest for personal satisfaction; no one is safe.

A new enterprise called the Shooting Gallery gets underway as the second week begins. Danny's surprise promotion and Geoff's daring new quest signal that major events are already developing. Robin and Jack's intense romance leads them to risk everything. Other conflicting interests develop—will they grow to threaten anyone's security? Little J and Roger Part 3 is filled with action, fun, and suspense.
